On June 2nd 2016, the president of the Eurasia-Pacific Uninet, Prof. Wolf-Dieter Rausch visited the Sino-Austrian Research Center for Environmental Protection at the Northwest Agriculture and Forestry University in Yangling for the interviews of the PhD and Postdoc scholarship applicants.

The interview include informations about the applicants field of specialization, their research program, as well as statements from their academic advisor. The granting of a scholarship will increase the applicant's research standard in the respective specialized field and language skill and also ensure that the study abroad will bring about further achievements and development.

At the same time, vice-principal 罗军 Luo Jun received Prof. Rausch's proposal for further cooperations between the Sino-Austrian Research Center for Environmental Protection and the Eurasia-Pacific Uninet. The chairperson of the Sino-Austrian Research Center for Environmental Protection Prof. 张硕新 Zhang Shuoxin held talks with Prof. Rausch about the expansion of the research fields. Prof. Rausch raised the idea of establishing an office in Austria to deepen the cooperation and exchange between Eurasia-Pacific Uninet and the Sino-Austrian Research Center for Environmental Protection.
